

International Chefs Day to Bring Healthy Food and Smiles to Children at Clearwater's Community Volunteer Center

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, US, October 17, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Tuesday, October 22, in celebration of International Chefs' Day, Chefs Zoltan Vajna and Barry Reid of the Church of Scientology Flag Service Organization will deliver a no-cost workshop on "How Healthy Food Works" to local elementary school students at the Clearwater Community Volunteers (CCV) Center.

Children participating in the event will get to try exotic fruits from all over the world as prepared by the Chefs. The nutritional benefits of eating a particular type of fruit will be presented - from lychee fruit to dragon fruit.

Since 2004, the World Association of Chefs' Society, or Worldchefs for short, has used International Chef's Day to celebrate the chef profession and pass on the knowledge and culinary skills to the next generation of chefs. In recent years, Worldchefs has partnered with Nestle Professional to educate children the world over on the importance of eating healthy by hosting interactive workshops, such as the one upcoming at the CCV Center.
