(www.PmiMileHiSym.org)

Morning keynote will be by Captain D. Michael Abrashoff, the former commander of USS Benfold. When he took command of the guided missile destroyer, it was the Navy's near-worst performing ship. Only 12 months later it was the best ship in the fleet—using the same crew. Abrashoff is the author of the Businessweek, Wall Street Journal and New York Times business bestseller, "It's Your Ship—Management Techniques from the Best Damn Ship in the Navy."

Afternoon keynoter is Vinh Giang, Young Entrepreneur of the Year, South Australia and award-winning magician on "The Power of Illusion."

The full day conference is the largest annual gathering of the project leadership community in the Rocky Mountain Region, attracting more than 1,500 practitioners.

According to a 2017 report by the Institute for the Future and Dell Technologies, 85% of the jobs that will be available by 2030 haven’t even been invented yet.” Source: Project Management Institute, Pulse of the Profession In-Depth Report, 2018.
