

United® Executive Recognized in the Top 100 Leaders in Real Estate

Dan Duffy Named in the Swanepoel Power 200 for the Sixth Consecutive Year

DALLAS, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, February 13, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Swanepoel T3 Sixty Group recently announced that Dan Duffy, chief executive officer of United Real Estate Group – operating as United Real Estate and United Country Real Estate – has been named to the Swanepoel Power 200 (SP200). Duffy has been recognized six out of the list's seven editions amongst the most powerful and influential leaders in residential real estate and this year ranking among the Top 100.

The Swanepoel T3 Sixty Group provides extensive research and industry knowledge in all aspects of the residential real estate industry. The SP200 evaluates and ranks leaders and executives according to their decision-making power, position held within the company, financial resources, achievements, industry significance and reach, public stances on imminent changes in the marketplace and personal influence in the industry.

“We are pleased that the hard work our teams have put into United Real Estate is paying off in a big way with dramatically accelerating growth and record smashing results in 2019,” said Duffy. “Landing two of us on the Power 200 rankings, Rick Haase, President and COO, and myself, especially when we were not on their radar just a few years ago is a true honor. This is not only an honor for us but most appropriately for the entire team and our affiliated brokers and agents. It is amazing what can be accomplished when a group of professionals “see things differently” and align around a common vision.”
