"You cannot afford to get sick in America - it is too expensive to get sick," stated Yisrael M. Safeek, MD, MBA, CEO. "The American hospital lobby, group purchasing organizations, and drug companies plan on keeping it that way. Even if you have excellent insurance coverage that pays 80% of the total bill, the remaining 20% can exceed $100,000 for major surgery."

"Hospital stays are expensive - adding up to more than $3.3 trillion a year in the U.S.," stated Yisrael M. Safeek, JD, Chief of Operations, The SafeCare Group. "There is no standard system that determines what a hospital charges for a particular service or procedure. So, we created our site to help patients see how their hospital compare with charges."

Some average hospital charges are:
• Heart valve replacement: $170,000

- Heart bypass: $123,000
- Spinal fusion: $110,000
- Hip replacement: $40,364
- Knee replacement: $35,000
- Angioplasty: $28,2000
- Gastric bypass: $25,000
- Cornea: $17,500

Since 2010, The SafeCare Group listened to the numerous emails and letters of complaints, suggestions, and feedback from patients and incorporated these into its hospital ratings applications.
