

Lisa Rafel And Members Of OPIUM MOON Address Climate Change Crisis In Latest Video Release

Lisa Rafel And Members Of GRAMMY AWARD™ Winning Group OPIUM MOON Join With UAMG/Sony/The Orchard And Release Music Video For Latest Single "NOW IS THE TIME"

NASHVILLE, TN, US, November 19, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Over the past weeks, the nation has seen the impact that a single vote can make. We witnessed the results of action being taken and in turn welcomed President-elect, Joe Biden, and while change may be around the corner, the issue of climate change and pollution remains at the forefront.

In response, poet, singer/songwriter, and grandmother of seven, Lisa Rafel penned and recorded the global awareness spoken word, new-age song

"Now Is The Time" featuring Lili Haydn and Itai Disraeli from the Grammy Award™ winning band Opium Moon. Along with the single release, is the release of the "Now Is The Time" video via Nashville-based record label United Alliance Music Group (UAMG) and its affiliates Sony Music/The Orchard.

Lisa Rafel states: "Now is the time to act, to ask wise elders and young passionate people to come together - it's time to raise awareness, to bridge oppositional thinking, to support solutions and help everyone to understand that fostering pollution is not a livelihood, it is the devastation of health and well-being for all future generations".

"Now is the Time" Is a powerful song and video that emotionally connects to the depth of the pollution crisis and asks, what can we all do to solve it? Rafel hopes this video and song moves
