PUNE, MAHARASTRA, INDIA, December 30, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Introduction
Global Organic Soymilk Market

Soymilk is a plant based drink derived from soy. The process involves soaking and grinding soy beans, then boiling and filtering out the remaining particulates. It is a stable mix of oil, water and protein and a healthy substitute of dairy milk for vegans and lactose intolerant people. It has been a hit in North America and Europe, especially after production techniques have been developed to give it a taste at par with dairy milk. Various merits of soy milk include:

- Good source of Vitamin A, Vitamin B12, potassium, and isoflavins.
- It can also be fortified with calcium and Vitamin D.
- Contains as much protein as cow's milk yet lesser calories.
- Contains very little saturated fat.

The professional survey report presents the Organic Soymilk Market w.r.to volume and value, at global, regional and company level. From global perspective, it takes into account the historical market data to predict and present the forecast for the period 2019-2025. On regional level, it takes in account the market in key regions, i.e., North America, Europe, China, Japan, Southeast Asia, and India.
