Advice Chaser, a service that introduces clients to experienced financial advisors, will host the webinar. Kelly Ruggles, a Registered Investment Adviser (RIA) from American Reliance Group, Inc., will moderate the webinar. The main speaker at the event will be Barbara Bush. As a National Social Security Advisor, Barbara is an expert in helping families plan their finances around challenging life circumstances. She has six steps that she recommends to families with a special needs child. In the webinar, she will also discuss:

- >>How Social Security, Medicare, and Medicaid will interact with each other through your life and your child's life
- >>What you'll need to consider for your special needs child to have a dignified future
- >>Types of private funds that may be available to help
- >>Things to consider for your child's living situation
- >>Who to include in your child's special needs plan
- >>How to choose someone to have the power of attorney

Megan Coelho, President of Advice Chaser, said, “I'm grateful to Barbara for taking the time to share her knowledge and experience on this important topic. All too often, parents are left trying to piece together support for their children without much help. It's very satisfying to be able to enlist Barbara's help to make even a tiny dent in that societal deficit."

About Advice Chaser

Advice Chaser is an independent financial concierge service. Our mission is to improve your investment experience by helping you access better financial advice. We listen to your specific needs and goals in order to offer you a custom-tailored connection to reputable advisors. Think of us as a boutique financial dating service.

Unlike other investor-matching services, we do not sell recommendations. Advisors pay to be considered for our select list, but they can't purchase a place there. We keep only consistently reputable advisors on our shortlist. To see what we can do for your future, see our services here.
