EINPresswire.com/ -- Vitality Inc. Forms a Strategic Partnership With US Based Company, Healixa

Vitality Inc, a seasoned local Guyanese company led by socially minded entrepreneurs, announced today that they have entered a long-term strategic partnership with a US based company, Healixa, Inc. (OTC: EMOR); a technology company focusing on building and acquiring innovative and disruptive technologies in the health-tech, clean water, and green-tech industries. This joint venture is expected to accelerate the growth for both companies in the quickly emerging Economy of Guyana. The new innovative partnership leverages the respective strengths of Healixa and Vitality to create compelling value for both companies and their respective shareowners, as well as the people of Guyana.

Guyana's projected economic growth for 2021, measured through its real Gross Domestic Product (GDP), has doubled from 8.1 percent to 20.9 percent, according to the biannual International Monetary Fund (IMF)'s World Economic Outlook. This growth builds on the 26.2 percent real GDP growth estimated for 2020. Based on the World Bank's latest estimates the country is set to record economic growth of 20.9 percent at the end of 2021, 26.0 percent in 2022 and 23.0 percent in 2023. By 2026 Guyana is projected to have the highest per capita oil production of any country in the world at around a barrel per person per day. Previous forecasts issued by the IMF put Guyana's economy at $14.1 billion by 2025, almost three times the 2019 figure.

"Our agreement enables us to focus on our core mission of being socially minded entrepreneurs, while leveraging the strength of Healixa's revolutionary technologies," said Mahaish Ramoutar,

Vitality Inc, a company based out of Guyana which is focused on providing sustainable and economical solutions in emerging economies.

CEO of Vitality Inc. "Guyana is in a unique position to learn the lessons of more developed economies and implement cutting edge technology to "leapfrog" over the traditional curve. Healixa's health-tech applications, along with Healixa's cutting edge Atmospheric Water Harvesting® are perfect examples of the types of technologies that will help both the people of Guyana and the economy more rapidly advance."

"Healixa continues to identify innovative approaches to partnerships that enable us to stay at the forefront of building sustainable communities," said Ian Parker, CEO of Healixa. "Vitality's commitment to a socially responsible approach to business aligns perfectly with our corporate culture of 'Doing Well While Doing Good'. This long-term partnership aligns us with a leading local company in one of the fastest growing markets in the world."
