

2021 Bisbee's Los Cabos Offshore Purse reached $1,900,000

The 1.9 Million dollar Los Cabos Offshore Team participation Teams grew by 45%

LAKE ELSINORE, CA, UNITED STATES, October 20, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In addition to the 2021 Bisbee East Cape Offshore Tournament's record-breaking payout of $1,578,100, this year's Bisbee's Los Cabos Offshore Tournament hit the million-dollar mark for the third consecutive time in its history and almost doubled that mark by hitting $1,961,600.

These two "smaller" Bisbee's Offshore Tournaments have paid out a stunning $4,038,250 over the past three years. Of course, this is in addition to the over $100,000,000 awarded by the 41-year-old flagship "Bisbee Black and Blue Marlin Tournament."

Los Cabo Offshores BIG WINNER was none other than the "Team Pelagic" with angler Ron Kawaja who received $863,480 for the 319-pound billfish he caught during the two-day tournament, the largest of the event.

In the Gamefish Division, Team Chinito Bonito II caught the largest yellowfin tuna of the tournament on the first day, weighing 179 pounds earning angler Davis Ahn a record-setting amount of $305,920. Then, on the last day, he hooked a much larger tuna that he fought over three hours before nearly having it in gaff's reach when the leader parted. Later while telling his story of the "one that got away," he swore it was over 400 pounds and a badass.
