ST. CHARLES, MISSOURI, UNITED STATES, November 8, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Join Emerging Industry Professionals from Nov. 17-18, 2021 at the St. Charles Convention Center in St. Charles, MO as the best

CannaTech experts from across the nation converge for two days of networking and educational opportunities.

From the latest in grow lights and extraction technology all the way to legal services and more, our speakers offer expert advice and experience to make cannabusinesses successful in this state's emerging \$200 million market.

"The Missouri Medical Cannabis sales continue to grow rapidly with new dispensaries opening up and over 135,000 patients and caregivers licensed," Jen Wynn, vice president of expositions, said. "This trend will likely reach or surpass the $200 million in sales predicted."

We will have seminars featuring many of the industry's top leaders speaking on topics from regulation and compliance to cultivating and harvesting, all the way through retail, marketing, and taxation.

Some key speakers to watch for include:

- The Future Nutrient Demand of the Cannabis Industry - Mark Dahl, Green Soil Solutions
- How to Attract Investors with Upside on Convertible Debt - Tom Howard, Collateral Base
- Cannabis & Chemicals: Supply Chain Troubles & Tips - Brandon Bahr, Simple Solvents (a Ceres 14 Company)
- Nurses: A Dispensary's Not-So-Secret Weapon - April Hatch, MSN, RN; Cannabis Care Team
- The Technological and Sustainable Advantages of LEDs - Aaron Ruff, Dazor
