

Character.org Certifies 67 State Schools and 2 Districts of Character

Each year, Character.org certifies schools and districts at the state level that demonstrate a dedicated focus on character development.

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, January 25, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Character.org, a national advocate and leader for character, today designated 67 schools and 2 districts as State Schools of Character for 2022. Since its inception, Character.org's Schools of Character program has positively impacted nearly three million students, staff, parents, and other community members. Each year, Character.org certifies schools and districts at the state level that demonstrate a dedicated focus on character development which has a positive effect on academic achievement, student behavior, and school climate. Schools and districts announced today will be considered for Character.org's highest distinction - National School of Character. (See the complete list of 2022 State Schools of Character below.)

"We are excited to announce today the 2022 State Schools and Districts of Character," said Dr. Arthur Schwartz, Character.org's President. "Each of these schools and districts have put into place a comprehensive initiative that equips and empowers their staff to reinforce and model a range of positive core values that will shape and form the hearts, minds, and choices of their students."
