

Travel & Lifestyle Talk Show “The Jet Set” Lands Increased Nationwide Distribution for its 7th Year on Television

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, March 9, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- During a time in which the travel industry and everyday life hit the pause button, millions of television viewers hit “play” and turned on the nationally syndicated travel and lifestyle talk show, “The Jet Set.” Viewers turn to the show each week to stay up-to-date on the latest travel news, for a quick escape to explore a new destination and culture from their living room, and for lifestyle tips and recommendations to make each day a bit easier. Now, ahead of the program's seventh year on television, the show is being made available in over 40 million additional homes.

Beginning April 1, 2022, “The Jet Set” is happy to announce the addition of 74 new broadcast stations and an increase in presence in over 91 television markets thanks to a new distribution agreement with the national cable network YouToo America. The network will air the show Fridays at 6pm Eastern/3pm Pacific. “We’re so happy to be returning to YTA,” said Bobby Laurie, co-host of The Jet Set. “The Jet Set started on YTA and helped launch us into a successful run and we’re excited to be back.”

The new weekly airing will be in addition to The Jet Set’s current clearances on the national cable
