Get your Wills and Insurance Documents Evaluated by a Handwriting Expert

ONTARIO, CANADA, May 17, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As per the 2020 Incident-based crime statistics published by Statistics Canada, a 23% increase has been reported in crimes against property involving a plethora of insurance and business frauds. According to another report published by TransUnion, the insurance industry exhibited the greatest growth in the rate of suspected digital fraud coming from Canada in Q1 2022 by a staggering 150.8%, potentially because of the large transactions involved in insurance.

Insurance fraud costs Canadians more than $1 billion each year. Most of the time the customers or businesses are not even aware of the fact that they have been defrauded by means of

The situation with forgery of wills is equally grave as the number of fraudulent documents reaching the Court of Law for a verdict has swelled manifold. Oftentimes, the will is authenticated in absence of a witness, only by handwriting and signature, commonly known as a holograph, which requires a careful forensic examination for certifying its authorship.
