In 2021, LEGO was considered the largest toy company in the world. Its famous interlocking plastic bricks and minifigures can be found in any toy store, now usually in sets featuring popular franchises and pop culture icons. LEGO Friends, LEGO Harry Potter, Minecraft, Star Wars and more playsets continue to appeal to enthusiasts of all ages. The LEGO Duplo line with its double-size bricks is aimed at younger children, while the more complex LEGO Technic was developed to emulate machinery and engineering.
