

Kabal signs a global frame agreement with Shell

Kabal, a leader in delivering Logistics and Supply Chain SaaS solutions to the energy industry, has signed a global agreement with Shell Plc.

STAVANGER, NORGE, January 11, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Kabal, a leader in delivering Logistics and Supply Chain SaaS solutions to the energy industry, has signed a global agreement with Shell Plc.

Shell is already using the Kabal software to plan and manage their offshore operations in the US and Mexico (Gulf of Mexico), Norway and the UK (North Sea). This new agreement provides Shell affiliates around the globe with on-demand access to Kabal's end-to-end logistics management software.

"At Shell, we continuously seek new technology to support our employees and operations. The transition to the Kabal SaaS platform is a leap in our digitalization journey. It enables simplified deployment and standardization of Shell operations around the world. This also meets the increasing demand for supply chain responsiveness, resilience, and transparency → and ultimately for more efficient and sustainable operations, says Dirk Mosterman, SC Lead Digital Logistics Solutions at Shell.

"We're proud to achieve this global contract with Shell, one of the supermajors in the global energy industry. Our partnership strengthens Kabal's position as the leading logistics management SaaS for the energy industry. The contract also confirms the value Shell and other energy operators place on operating efficiently with minimal environmental impact. With Kabal,

We're proud to achieve this global contract with Shell, one of the supermajors in the global energy industry, says Kabal CEO Jan Inge Pedersen
