“Truth & Liberty Coalition stands for preserving America’s constitutional republic and the guarantee to each citizen the protection of their Creator-given rights,” shared Harris.

“Biblical values and freedom are under attack in our nation like never before. It is critically important that we support patriots who stand for truth in the face of opposition and persecution. That’s why we have decided to honor Mat Staver and Jack Phillips and host this fundraising event for Truth & Liberty Coalition,” said Harris.

Honoree Mat Staver, the founder, and chairman of Liberty Counsel, will receive the Samuel Adams Award for Courageous Christian Leadership, in recognition of his career spent “defending sacred Constitutional liberties, especially during the recent COVID-19 pandemic,” said Harris. “Staver and his team fought for the rights of churches to assemble, nurses to care for the sick, and armed service members to serve.”

Honoree Jack Phillips, the owner of Masterpiece Cakeshop in Lakewood, Colorado, will receive the Samuel Whittemore Award for Heroic Christian Citizenship. Phillips has resolutely fought for the last ten years for his right to hold to the dictates of his conscience.
