

Child Author Mortaza Tokhy Soon To Release His New Book "The Lacking City" In Book Stores Across U.S. & Canada

"The Lacking City" is a thriller that New York Book Review Calls "Riveting" written by child author Mortaza Tokhy and published By True American Publishing USA

BUFFALO, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, June 8, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- For most boys summer vacation was a time to look forward to. A time when rules and curfews were broken. A time when new friendships were created. A time when a wrong turn will take you one-way to The Lacking City. "It is a story about a place between life and death where evil people are judged" Mortaza. continues "It is the story of two boys who get run down by a drunk hit and run driver only to later judge him for what he did."

As a child author Mortaza says he gets inspired by stories where the ending isn't clear and the story itself takes the audience on a roller coaster journey. "This is my first actual book, and it won't be my last," says Mortaza, who is supported by a publishing company (True American Publishing) and editors. "The Lacking City" is scheduled to be released in July 2023 in book stores throughout the United States and Canada.
