60-miles to help fight teen suicide for Franki

FELLOWS RIDE Founder: Dieter Schneider
Dieter lost his 23-year-old son, Carsten, to suicide. He eventually found relief from heartache by willful country riding. Now he prescribes "riding" as a reliable mental health remedy for depression. While living in Germany, Dieter organizes FELLOWS RIDES around the globe to promote mental health.

RIDE Recipient: Franki Moscato Foundation
Franki is a 22-year-old Wisconsin music artist who fights teen suicide with her charity foundation thanks to passionate volunteers of all ages. Franki travels the nation speaking and performing music to children and adults about kindness, anti-bullying, and community solutions to suicide prevention. Proceeds only target WI.

After learning about Wisconsin and mental health promotion, my team unanimously chose the Franki Moscato Foundation.”

Dieter Schneider

FELLOWS RIDE is the brainstorm of German resident Dieter Schneider who lost his son Carsten to suicide ten years ago.

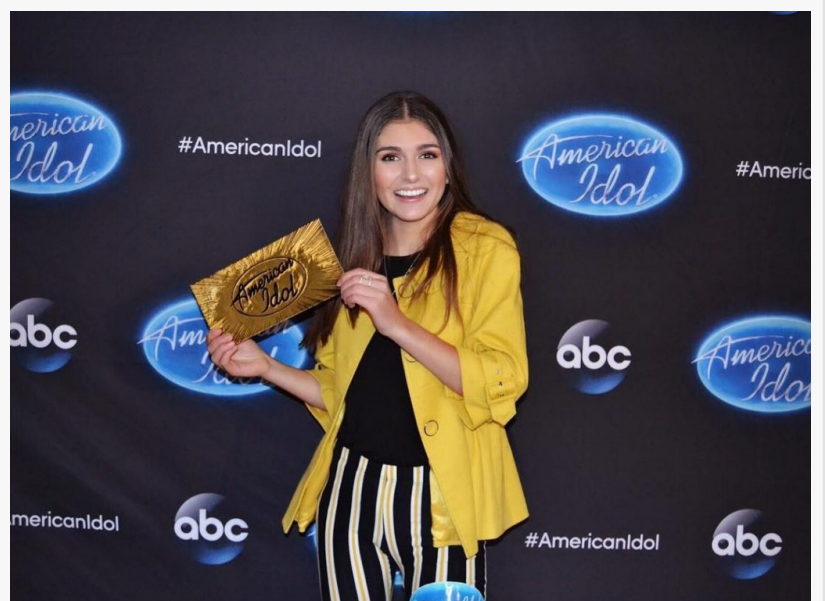

Dieter pledged to fight the growing disease that took his son by creating a global motorcycling movement that has span many countries in Europe.

FELLOWS RIDE is coming to the United States and will launch from Doc's Harley-Davidson in Bonduel, Wisconsin on September 21st. “After learning about Wisconsin and mental health promotion, my team unanimously chose the Franki Moscato Foundation,” exclaimed Schneider.

Franki Moscato won the Golden Ticket on the 2019 season of ABC's American Idol and has been a spokesperson for suicide-awareness organizations since she was eleven. Moscato created her own non-profit foundation that focuses on healing Wisconsin Teens. The proceeds of the FELLOWS RIDE will help broadcast Moscato's latest televised public service announcement that encourages parents to refrain from giving their children Smartphones until after eighth grade, and prescribe that they formally pledge their decision at <http://WaitUntil8th.org> .
