LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, March 19, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Andria Litto, acclaimed writer, producer, and director of the award-winning film "My Father Moves Mountains," has been recognized as one of the 100 Most Fascinating People in Los Angeles – 2025 by the Best of Los Angeles Award community. The prestigious recognition, announced by award coordinator Aurora DeRose, highlights Litto's impact on the film industry and her contributions to the cultural landscape of Los Angeles.

The Best of Los Angeles Award community was established nine years ago to honor excellence across various industries, including business, entertainment, art, philanthropy, and innovation. With a growing network of over 7,600 professionals across Southern California, the community is dedicated to showcasing the city's most exceptional people, places, and achievements, guided by its core motto: "No Ads. No B.S. Only the Best."

Andria Litto

"The mission of the Best of Los Angeles

Award is to celebrate the most outstanding individuals and businesses in the city while fostering a community of excellence,” says DeRose. “Our goal is to recognize and connect those who set the highest standards of quality, integrity, and innovation in their respective fields. We proudly welcome Andria Litto into our BoLAA family as one of the 100 Most Fascinating People in Los Angeles – 2025.”

Each year, the 100 Most Fascinating People in Los Angeles list honors individuals who have made a significant impact in their industries and communities. Past honorees have included influential figures in film, media, entrepreneurship, social advocacy, and the arts, reflecting the diverse and dynamic nature of Los Angeles itself.

For decades, Litto has played a vital role in writing and film production, creating unique, independently produced films that resonate with audiences. Her expertise and dedication have made her a trusted name in the film industry.

By celebrating the accomplishments of leaders like Litto, the Best of Los Angeles Award continues to shine a spotlight on the innovators and visionaries who help shape the city’s cultural and creative landscape.
