Balfour Capital Group Expands
Southeast Asia Presence Through
Strategic Collaboration with Vietnamese Investment Expert Nguyễn
Tuấn Thành

In a strategic move to deepen its presence in Southeast Asia and further its commitment to high-level talent and localized market expertise, Balfour Capital Group (BCG) is pleased to announce a collaboration with Nguyễn Tuấn Thành, one of Vietnam's most promising and dynamic investment professionals.

Success comes from clear vision, relentless effort, and the courage to lead with purpose—even when the path is uncertain.”

Pham Nhat Vuong, Chairman, Vingroup

With over five years of experience navigating the complexities of Vietnam's financial landscape, Thành brings a sharp analytical mindset, a client-first approach, and a strong track record in managing institutional portfolios. His deep knowledge of the Vietnamese equity market and ability to build tailored, results-driven investment strategies align perfectly with BCG's global investment philosophy and precision-based capital management.

Currently serving as Senior Investment Advisory Executive at Viet Dragon Securities Corporation, Thành manages portfolios for four domestic funds and one offshore investment vehicle. His dual focus on performance and regulatory compliance makes him an ideal partner as BCG expands its international investment architecture, particularly in emerging markets with evolving legal and financial systems.

“Nguyễn Tuấn Thành represents the kind of progressive, insightful leadership that defines our approach to global investing,” said Steve Alain Lawrence, Chief Investment Officer at Balfour Capital Group. “Vietnam is a market of immense potential, and Thành's expertise will play a crucial role in helping us deepen our understanding of the region, identify new opportunities, and deliver strong, sustainable returns for our clients worldwide.”

Thành's previous tenure at Saigon Securities Inc. saw him supporting nearly 200 retail clients in securities trading. He gained recognition for his ability to simplify complex financial instruments and build lasting client relationships through transparency and personalized service. His early career experience in international trade documentation and logistics further enhances his suitability for BCG's cross-border investment initiatives.

He holds a Bachelor's in International Business and a Master of Commerce from the University of Economics in Ho Chi Minh City. Thành is certified in both brokerage and derivative securities by the State Securities Commission of Vietnam and has successfully completed CFA Level I—demonstrating his technical excellence and commitment to international best practices.

This partnership reflects Balfour Capital Group's continued focus on building strategic relationships with regional market leaders who combine deep local knowledge with global investment acumen. With offices in London, New York, Dubai, and Singapore, BCG remains committed to delivering customized asset management solutions underpinned by rigorous research, disciplined risk frameworks, and forward-looking insights.

As BCG strengthens its presence in Vietnam and the broader ASEAN region, Thành's addition marks a significant step forward in its mission to pursue sustainable global growth and exceptional performance outcomes.
