

Atticus Publishing Introduces 'Read My Life and Travel Experiences and I Will Throw in a Cake' by Judy Ann Tarvin

"A heartwarming and humorous collection of stories from childhood to adulthood, highlighting the author's spiritual journey and travel experiences."

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, April 17, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Atticus Publishing is proud to introduce Read My Life and Travel Experiences and I Will Throw in a Cake, the latest work by Judy Ann Tarvin. In this delightful collection of short stories, Judy takes readers through her life, sharing funny anecdotes from her childhood and travels across Japan, Hong Kong, Thailand, and Israel, while also recounting her adventures in cake decorating—some of which went humorously wrong!

At the heart of the book, however, is Judy's personal journey to faith. Through her stories, she reflects on how God used people, grief, and experiences to guide her into a deep relationship with Him. The narrative begins in childhood, weaves through moments of loss, joy, and discovery, and ultimately reveals how Jesus worked in her life, even when she didn't know it.

Judy, a California native, is an accomplished educator and professional, having served as a teacher, principal, youth leader, and credit card dispute specialist over her career. Her unique blend of humor and heartfelt spirituality makes her writing both entertaining and meaningful. She further discusses these themes in her recent interview on The Spotlight Network with Logan Crawford, facilitated by Atticus Publishing.

As Judy shares, "My goal in writing this book was to show how God's hand guided me through people, griefs, and experiences. I also wanted to share the many true stories that my friends and family believed were book-worthy."

This inspiring and entertaining read is perfect for those looking for a mixture of laughter, life lessons, and spiritual reflection.
