In his latest book, “Striving to Be Perfect as the Heavenly Father Is Perfect: Reflections on Christian Maturity in Decision-Making, Forgiving, and Reconciliation,” Rev. John F. Striving to Be Perfect as the Heavenly Father Is Perfect: Reflections on Christian Maturity in Decision-Making, Forgiving, and Reconciliation

Set to be featured at the LA Times Festival of Books, this exceptional work examines Christ's call to forgiveness and reconciliation, drawing from Scripture, early church fathers, healthcare ethics, and personal experiences, including insights from the Twelve Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous. Through these reflections, Fr. Tuohey invites readers to embrace Jesus's teachings in practical ways, recognizing that true Christian growth involves deep self-examination, humility, and the courage to seek reconciliation.

A renowned ethicist, Rev. John F. Tuohey holds the Endowed Chair of Applied Health Care Ethics and has served as the regional director for the Providence Center for Health Care Ethics. His background in theology and healthcare ethics informs his approach to understanding moral and spiritual growth, which he uses to good use and offers help to anyone seeking to deepen their faith and navigate the challenges of Christian life.

This thought-provoking book will be on display at the LA Times Festival of Books on April 26–27, 2025, at the Olympus Story House booth (#182) in the Gold Zone, South Trowsdale. It is also available through Amazon, Barnes & Noble, and other major digital bookstores.
