

VetComm CEO Kate Monroe Featured on California Insider, Sharing Her Journey from Marine to Veteran Advocate

Marine Veteran and VetComm CEO Discusses Overcoming Adversity and Empowering Veterans to Access the Benefits They Are Owed on California Insider

SAN DIEGO, CA, UNITED STATES, May 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Kate Monroe, CEO and co-founder of VetComm, is appearing in the latest episode of California Insider to share her personal journey from Marine Corps service to becoming a leading advocate for veterans' benefits.

After facing an assault and navigating the complex Veterans Affairs system following her discharge, Monroe experienced firsthand the obstacles that prevent many veterans from receiving the support they deserve. These challenges became the catalyst for founding VetComm, a company dedicated to guiding veterans through the VA benefits process and ensuring they receive the compensation they are owed.

In the episode, Monroe reflects on how hardship shaped her mission, the impact of broken exit systems on veterans and the discipline required to build a successful, purpose-driven company. Under her leadership, VetComm has helped thousands of veterans secure nearly $4 billion in lifetime income, generating millions in revenue while empowering the veteran community.

Her appearance on California Insider further highlights her commitment to advocacy and her role as a leading voice in the veteran community. Her story is a testament to the power of perseverance and purpose.

The episode is available to watch now on California Insider's website. For more information about VetComm and Monroe's advocacy, visit www.vetcomm.us.
