The newly available itineraries include Jammu & Kashmir Tour Packages providing options for visiting locations such as Dal Lake in Srinagar, with mountains and Mughal gardens overlooking, and the valleys of Gulmarg and Pahalgam which are popular for adventures and scenery. Tour options include houseboat stays and mountain treks. Tour options include houseboat stays and mountain treks.

The Golden Triangle Tour is a route that covers Delhi's spirited city, Agra with its Mughal architecture, and Jaipur with its Rajput heritage. Those travelers choosing the Golden Triangle Tour package can expect to visit local markets filled with handicrafts, go inside stunning historical forts that tell stories of many years ago and see beautiful architectural sites, like the one and only Taj Mahal. The Golden Triangle is a fabulous way to learn more about India's historical past and colorful present, making it a great opportunity for first-time travelers and a return visit for previous travelers.

In addition, YoYo Trips is excited to expand its offering further across the western Himalayas, to offer options for travelers who want to enjoy the incredible beauty of Himachal Pradesh. The package includes an immersive experience of the architecture of colonial Shimla, laid-back valleys of Kullu, and beautiful Manali, a city famous for its adventures and beautiful views. The new Shimla Kullu Manali tour package even provides comfortable accommodations, scenic mountain roads, and experience Himachal Pradesh's culture and traditions.

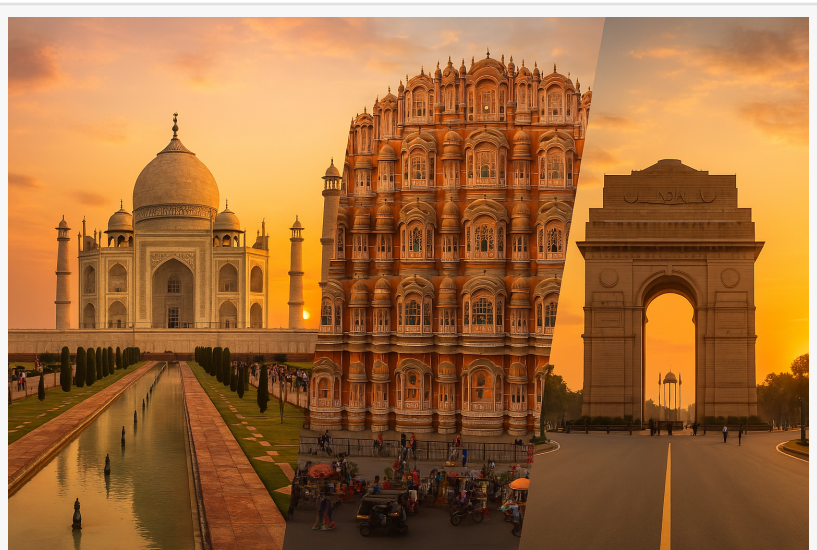

A representative from YoYo Trips stated that the company is offering the new North India packages, highlighting the diversity of the region and its range of experiences. They indicated that North India offers various attractions, and these packages have been created to showcase this, from the historical significance of the Golden Triangle Tour to the natural beauty found within their Himachal Pradesh, Jammu and Kashmir tour.

Travelers interested in the attractions of North India can visit the YoYo Trips website to view the complete list of North India tour packages and plan their trips. YoYo Trips states that its focus is on providing service and creating memories for its customers.
