"Top Gun Dog Training is a 10-star dog obedience training. We were having some behavior problems with our German Shepherd rescue dog—the dog had been traumatized before we adopted him, had a rough life, and was very antisocial and didn't trust anybody. Dale calmly and effectively worked with our adoptee and has worked wonders in showing us, along with teaching the dog proper socialization and getting past his previous traumas. Dales 8 8-week course was well worth the time and money. Top Gun is top-notch in helping us learn how to manage our new dog's reactivity, fear, and conflict resolution. In 8 weeks, our dog has learned so much that we would have never been able to do on our own."

In addition to winning this award, Dale has published three top-selling puppy training books, hosted 100 Puppy Talk Podcast episodes, and successfully trained over 1,200 puppies. All of Dale's work has been well-received, with glowing 5-star reviews.

"We contacted Dale before we got our puppy Snoopy & that was the best decision we made. He helped us with all the stages a puppy goes through & was amazing at teaching us how the commands worked & why. You can tell he knows his stuff & is fantastic with dogs. He even brought little gifts for Snoopy at each visit! We cannot thank him enough for helping us through the challenging stages a puppy goes through. I would highly recommend Dale!"
