This year, the jury brings together creative experts from 17 countries from all over the world, including C-executives, creative directors, marketing leaders, and influential designers. The jury members will review submissions in over 300 categories.

“Our jury plays a significant role in making Symbol Creative Awards what they are — fair, transparent, and inspiring. Even though their job isn’t easy, we’re sure that their diverse perspectives and expertise will help them objectively evaluate all of the outstanding entries,” says Ovanes Ovanessian, Co-founder of Symbol Creative Awards.

Nile Livingston also went on to share, “I am excited to be on a jury of diverse individuals appraising the work of contestants around the world. Through this experience, I am looking to find something that will both elevate the standard of excellence and inspire creatives and innovators like myself, everywhere.”
