New Orleans digital marketing agency awards grant to local nonprofit, Heroes of New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, LA, UNITED STATES, May 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Get Online NOLA, a woman-owned digital marketing agency based in New Orleans, has announced the winner of the 2025 Get Online NOLA Grant: Heroes of New Orleans. The grassroots nonprofit organization will receive a custom website to support their mission of youth empowerment and community development in the New Orleans area.

Founded in 2012 by Greg Ravy, Heroes of New Orleans (HONO) was born from a desire to create safer, more hopeful futures for local youth. After a personal encounter with gun violence, Ravy was inspired to take action and build a network of mentorship, opportunity, and support for young people in Algiers and beyond. HONO's programs focus on youth career development, educational advancement, and holistic family empowerment. They offer resources that uplift not only individuals but entire communities.

A new website will help us better connect with our community, share our mission, and reach those who need us most.”
