

Houston to host The Movement Festival Memorial Day Weekend To honor five-year anniversary of George Floyd

A four-day premier event of dialogue, culture, art, and entertainment

HOUSTON, HARRIS COUNTY, TX, UNITED STATES, May 21, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In honor of cultural diversity, social justice, and economic advancement, Houston will welcome the inaugural TMF – The Movement Festival, a four-day premier event produced by KDITC (Kay Davis In The Community) and the family of George Floyd, May 22–25, 2025, at Tom Bass Regional Park and locations across the city.

Inspired by the global movement following the tragic death of Houston native George Floyd, The Movement Festival is designed to be a powerful convergence of dialogue, culture, art, and entertainment that fosters healing, unity, and empowerment across communities. The festival kicks off Thursday, May 22, with a free community forum titled “The Report Card Forum”, hosted at the Third Ward Multi-Purpose Center from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., featuring keynote speaker and nationally renowned political commentator Tezlyn Figaro, and George Floyd’s cousin and advocate Dr. Shareeduh McGee.

“This festival is critical in honoring George’s life and legacy because it reminds us of the ultimate sacrifice he made,” said Dr. Shareeduh McGee, cousin of George Floyd. “It’s more than an event—it’s a space for healing, for unity, and for action. It honors someone we loved deeply and reminds us all of the price he paid. It offers the community a space to reflect on the progress we’ve made, acknowledge where we’ve fallen short, and understand how we can each contribute to the change we want to see. We must never forget... and we must never stop showing up for one another.”

The flyer is a vibrant collage. At the top, it says 'SUN 5.25. 12PM' in large white letters. Below that, a black banner reads '"WORSHIP IN THE PARK" GEORGE P. FLOYD 5 YEAR MEMORIAL DEDICATION'. The center features a large image of a man with a beard and glasses speaking into a microphone, with 'TMF' in large, stylized letters over a city skyline. Text below the image says 'Hosted By MARCUS D. WILEY'. A row of small portraits shows various speakers: Bishop James Dixon, Jeffrey Boney, Tramaine Hawkins, Texas State Representative Ron Reynolds, Mia K. Wright, Dr. Renuis E. Wright, and Performing Artist James O'Neal. Below the portraits, it lists 'FELLOWSHIP! DEVOTION! DEDICATION! LIVE MUSIC! FOOD! ART!' and 'SPECIAL FEATURE: "CAMP LOGAN" FILM DEBUT'. The location is 'TOM BASS COMMUNITY CENTER 15108 CULLEN BLVD - 77047'. The bottom section features a statue of George Floyd with the text '"BALLOON RELEASE" MEMORIALIZATION @ "A CONVERSATION WITH GEORGE" STATUE' and '$25 General Admission'. At the very bottom, there are logos for KDITC, U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development, City of Houston, LLR, UCOOT-II, EVANS-SHABAZZ, and others.

Flyer of Houston Movement Festival
Worship In the Park courtesy of KDITC

Weekend Highlights Include:

Friday- Fun Music & Festivities at 4501 Alameda Food Truck Park

Saturday- "En Blanc in the Park includes table and seating under the tent, gourmet brunch for six, plus enjoy live R&B & Jazz featuring "Kyle Turner", "Kollett, "Robert Allen Berry & Friends", "Jelando Johnson", "Dorian Gray" and sounds by DJ "Boom Boom.

Sunday Gospel Celebration- Hosted by Marcus D. Wiley, with a special performance by gospel icon Tramaine Hawkins. Other guests include Pastors Mia Wright and Rudy Rasmus, Bishop Dixon, local and national political officials.

Festivalgoers will enjoy an array of experiences including art installations, dance competitions, live music, interactive games, cultural food vendors, fashion, sculptures, and community-focused exhibitions.

"This festival is about creating space to reflect, uplift, and unite," said Dannette Davis, Founder of KDITC. "Through powerful storytelling, culture, and community, we're bringing people together to continue the movement toward equality, creativity, and healing."

To view the full schedule or purchase tickets, visit www.kditc.info/themovementfestival.

About KDITC –

Kay Davis In The Community (KDITC) is a Houston-based 501(c)(3) nonprofit founded by Dannette Davis. KDITC promotes community well-being by supporting arts, culture, education, and economic opportunity. Through a mission rooted in equity and empowerment, KDITC offers scholarships, wellness programs, and dynamic community events that foster personal growth and collective progress for underserved communities.

Kay Davis In The Community

KDITC

email us here

Visit us on social media:

YouTube

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/814545873>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2025 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.