Held annually, the Market ACG Growth Conference is a key gathering for professionals and entrepreneurs focused on mergers, acquisitions, and growth financing. The event brings together influential figures from private equity, investment banking, corporate development, and wealth management.

Stenner's involvement emphasizes his commitment to supporting entrepreneurs navigating liquidity events and middle-market transitions.

"This conference is an exceptional platform for fostering meaningful connections, especially for business owners and entrepreneurs going through liquidity events," said Stenner. "Our team is proud to support initiatives that empower growth and provide strategic insight to those making complex financial decisions."

With over 25 years of experience in the wealth management industry, Stenner is recognized for his expertise in guiding ultra-high net worth entrepreneurs, business founders, and family offices through critical transitions. His team at Stenner Wealth Partners+ offers bespoke financial solutions tailored to the specific challenges and opportunities that arise from business exits and capital events.

Throughout his career, Stenner has consistently championed strategic planning around liquidity events, helping clients achieve clarity and confidence during pivotal financial moments. His presence at the WestConnect Conference is both a celebration of this legacy and a signal of continued dedication to advancing excellence in wealth management.

The President's Reception, where Stenner offered opening remarks, served as the formal kickoff to the conference and set the tone for high-level dialogue and networking across industries. His participation reflects the alignment between the values of Stenner Wealth Partners+ and the mission of ACG to drive middle market growth and innovation.
