boldness. Early feedback has been polarizing—some praise its authenticity and emotional depth, while others grapple with its provocative themes. But it's in that tension that the true strength of the song lies.

"As A.T.L.D.V., we want our existing and new fans to know our new single Crazy is about the ups and downs in relationships.

You know that you can have crazy relationships but you have to see through them.

-Nako DeVinnci (Pronounced Nay-ko DaVinci), Crazy Creator & A.T.L.D.V. Group Member

Crazy is about the highs and lows of love—when it's toxic but real. We've all had those wild relationships you just can't shake. That's the kind of love we're talking about."

Nako DeVinnci (Pronounced Nay-ko DaVinci)

"I wrote my Crazy verse in regards to an experience that I got caught up in that was created by someone else's crazy. In my verse, I say "that the girl will call the police on you and turn right around and go bail you out of jail." That's crazy to me! It's that crazy love, in and out of hell love, that keep you in a spell love."

--Ike Nyce, A.T.L.D.V. Group Member
