

Concierge Auctions: Bidding Opens for Live Global Sales in London

Bidding open for global properties, culminating in one of the year's top live auction days, with some sales also closing online through June

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, May 27, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Concierge Auctions is pleased to announce that bidding is officially open for its Global Sale lineup, including a magnificent split-level villa, originally built by footballer Per Mertesacker, in Hanover, Germany. Bidding will conclude on 29 May at Sotheby's London with additional properties closing online via the firm's online, conciergeauctions.com, marketplace throughout June.

"With bidding underway, our auction platform provides an ideal opportunity for these incomparable estates to be viewed and acquired within a transparent, competitive marketplace," said Krystal Aeby, President of Concierge Auctions. "London—an epicenter of international finance, culture, and luxury—forms the ideal stage for our Global Sale, perfectly matching the prestige of the homes on offer and the global demand they command. Following an extraordinary year, we look forward to seeing these remarkable properties welcomed by their next stewards in this unique auction event."
