This is TwelveStone’s 22nd location, joining existing Infusion Centers in Tennessee (Bellevue, Chattanooga, Knoxville, Mt. Juliet, Murfreesboro, North Nashville and Spring Hill,) Georgia (Canton, Cumming, Duluth, Lithonia, Peachtree City and Smyrna,) Virginia (Norfolk, Richmond, Roanoke, Stone Springs, Sterling and Woodbridge) and

Kentucky (Lexington, Louisville.)

“The Memphis (Germantown) opening represents an exciting opportunity to deepen our partnerships with local providers and serve more patients in need of accessible, high-quality infusion care,” said Dana Anderson, sales territory manager at TwelveStone Health Partners. “We’re seeing strong demand for outpatient infusion services in this region, and we’re proud to bring TwelveStone’s trusted care model to Western Tennessee.”

TwelveStone Infusion patients receive high-quality care in private treatment rooms supported by certified clinicians. Free Wi-Fi, snacks and drinks are also offered to patients and family members, which creates a positive patient experience with personalized attention, validated by more than 1500 five-star Google reviews.

“Opening our Germantown center is a proud moment for our team,” said Rachael Stirling, nurse practitioner/supervisor, TwelveStone Health Partners Memphis. “We understand how critical it is for patients with chronic conditions to receive compassionate, high-quality infusion care close to home. This new location allows us to extend our commitment to personalized, patient-focused service to the Memphis community.”
