The German luxury furniture brand Casa Padrino was recognized for its outstanding quality, craftsmanship, and international brand presence at the prestigious Gala Dinner & Awards held during the 2025 Cannes Film Festival.

Founder and CEO Marvin Schertl and Dr. Sina Schertl accepted the award in person on the evening of May 22, 2025, at the elegant Majestic Beach Club in Cannes.

A Night of Glamour at the Film Festival

The Gala Dinner & Awards is considered one of the most glamorous events during the Cannes Film Festival. The event was organized as a joint initiative by the AI Films Awards (Jacques Durand), Congress Awards (Anna Stukkert), and The Royal Gentlemen (Thomas Misse & Marek Harmony). The evening was expertly hosted by Alina Kremss, adding charm and elegance to the celebration.

Casa Padrino was honored as a leading name in luxury interior design, receiving praise for its dedication to artisanal precision, timeless aesthetics, and its strong global presence. The brand's design philosophy blends classic elegance with handcrafted excellence—making it a recognized symbol of refined living and high-end European craftsmanship.

"This recognition at such a prestigious event during the Cannes Film Festival fills us with pride," said Marvin Schertl, founder and CEO of Casa Padrino. "It motivates us to continue setting benchmarks in the luxury furniture segment.”

Celebrating the Grand Art de Vivre
The evening’s program was a vibrant celebration of the Grand Art de Vivre, uniting distinguished figures from the worlds of art, design, philanthropy, fashion, and film. Guests enjoyed an immersive cultural experience that reflected international sophistication, featuring an exclusive art exhibition, a high fashion runway show, captivating live musical performances, and a curated gourmet dinner. The event served as a prestigious platform to honor global talents who embody excellence in their respective disciplines.

Honoring Distinction Beyond Design

In addition to Casa Padrino, several other noteworthy individuals were honored for their contributions:

Ioanna Efthymiou, recognized for her philanthropic engagement with the Maria Callas Charity in Monaco

Toby Hyder, awarded for his film Bones of Yew, which received the AI Films Award

These recognitions underscored the event’s commitment to highlighting not only luxury and design but also humanitarian work and creative achievement.
