

PayToMe.co Joins NVIDIA Inception to Tackle $46B SMB Finance Problem With AI

NVIDIA Inception supports PayToMe.co's mission to empower 400M SMBs with real-time payments, compliance automation, and global AI infrastructure.

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, June 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- □

PayToMe.co, an award-winning AI-powered fintech platform serving global small and midsize businesses (SMBs), today announced its acceptance into the exclusive NVIDIA Inception Program. Fewer than 1% of startups worldwide are selected for this accelerator, which supports trailblazing AI companies through resources, training, and ecosystem exposure.

With support from NVIDIA Inception and AWS, we're building the AI infrastructure every small business needs to scale—securely, affordably, and globally”

PayToMe.co

“This is more than a milestone—it's a moment of validation,” said Mike Ulker, Founder and CEO of PayToMe.co. “Support from NVIDIA Inception enables us to scale faster, build smarter, and deepen our impact on the $46 billion challenge SMBs face in cross-border payments, fraud, and compliance fragmentation.”

□ AI-Powered Infrastructure Built for Global SMBs
PayToMe.co provides enterprise-grade financial infrastructure that allows SMBs—often excluded by legacy institutions—to operate globally with automation and compliance at scale. The platform's core capabilities include:

- Patented Text-to-Pay® invoicing via SMS
- AI-powered bookkeeping, fraud detection, and financial reporting
- Embedded KYC/KYB modules, tax handling, and multi-currency flows
- Integrations with 12,000+ financial institutions and 7,000 fintech applications

The company serves clients across 100+ countries, enabling digital commerce, logistics, and services to move faster, safer, and smarter.

□ Benefits from NVIDIA Inception Program

Participation in the NVIDIA Inception Program gives PayToMe.co access to:

- High-performance NVIDIA GPUs and AI development toolkits
- Training via the NVIDIA Deep Learning Institute
- Exposure to a global ecosystem of developers and investors
- Go-to-market and scaling resources designed to accelerate AI innovation

These benefits enhance PayToMe.co's roadmap for real-time financial automation and strengthen its ability to serve global SMBs with intelligence and trust.

□ Reinforced by AWS Strategic Startups Team

PayToMe.co was also recently selected by the AWS Strategic Startups Team, a highly competitive program for top-tier cloud-native ventures. As part of the initiative, the company receives:

- A dedicated technical and growth team
- AWS Activate credits, architectural guidance, and funding opportunities
- Strategic introductions to tech partners including Vanta, Alloy, and Moov

"Being backed by both NVIDIA

Inception and the AWS Strategic Startups Team gives us the platform—and the credibility—to deliver enterprise-grade infrastructure to every SMB that needs it," Ulker added.
