

Celerity Discovery Receives New State and Municipal Procurement Award from Purchasing Cooperative of America (PCA)

Celerity Discovery receives national procurement contract award from Purchasing Cooperative of America (PCA) for eDiscovery / litigation support services

WALNUT CREEK, CA, UNITED STATES, June 10, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Celerity Discovery, an agile legal services provider of eDiscovery, multi-language litigation, data analysis, expert witness and incident response services to government agencies, announces the receipt of a new national procurement contract award from Purchasing Cooperative of America (PCA) for state and municipal eDiscovery and digital litigation services in all 50 states.

The Purchasing Cooperative of America (PCA) procurement award enables Celerity Discovery to expand its eDiscovery and digital litigation services with Attorney General offices and municipal legal departments seeking to maximize and optimize their return on digital litigation investment. The Purchasing Cooperative of America (PCA) is a national purchasing cooperative with legally procured contracts available for public entities in all 50 States.

Complementing existing state and local procurement provisions, the PCA procurement award further empowers state Attorney General offices and government legal departments with a vetted procurement tool to help expedite, acquire and engage eDiscovery and digital litigation services as projects evolve. The PCA award enables government clients to immediately and easily purchase eDiscovery and digital litigation services at no additional cost or markup.

Joe Sciarrotta, General Counsel and Vice President at Celerity Discovery states, "Celerity Discovery professionals have continuously merged law and technology for 20+ years to help state Attorney General offices and other government legal departments optimize complex, high-profile legal matters. The new PCA contract award is another important procurement tool that will help Attorney General offices and other government legal departments rapidly retain Celerity Discovery services as needed."

PCA Contract Manager Shannon Fultz adds, "The Purchasing Cooperative of America provides government agencies with immediate procurement and quick access to an approved eDiscovery vendor adhering to our organization's high standards of excellence providing quantifiable cost savings for all members. We are excited to add Celerity Discovery to our outstanding list of awarded contractors."
