

Historical Drama Meets Gritty Suspense in Call Me Charlie, the New Novel by Lisa Lynn

JOSHUA, TX, UNITED STATES, June 16, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- In Call Me Charlie, author Lisa Lynn delivers a riveting blend of historical fiction, mystery, and feminist grit. Set in late 19th-century New York, the novel follows Charlotte “Charlie” Smith, a trailblazing young doctor called home to find her father dead under suspicious circumstances. As she faces down greed, corruption, and deadly ambition, Charlie must uncover the truth behind her father’s death while defending her rightful inheritance and her future in medicine.

The fictional town of Shady is the backdrop for a story rich in period detail and emotional depth. Yet the challenges Charlie endures are grounded in real historical struggles—from societal resistance to women in the medical profession to the grim realities of power, property, and betrayal. Charlie’s journey is one of intellect, courage, and moral resolve, and she is flanked by an ensemble of loyal allies and formidable adversaries, each adding layers of tension and humanity to the story.

Lynn’s novel is both a suspenseful page-turner and a heartfelt tribute to the pioneering women who paved the way for future generations in medicine and beyond. With compelling characters and an escalating mystery that leads to harrowing confrontations, Call Me Charlie is a stirring testament to resilience, justice, and the enduring fight for what’s right.

For readers who love strong female leads, historical drama, and stories of defiant courage, Call Me Charlie is not to be missed.
