

Radford Doors & Gates Continues Community Commitment Through Support of Boys & Girls Clubs of Northwest San Diego

Radford Doors & Gates' Emily Souliotes serves as Jr. Board Chair for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Northwest San Diego, supporting programs for local youth.

SAN DIEGO, CA, UNITED STATES, July 11, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Radford Doors & Gates, a leading provider of custom garage doors and gates in San Diego, Orange County, and throughout Southern California, is proud to highlight co-owner Emily Souliotes' continued leadership and advocacy as Jr. Board Chair for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Northwest San Diego. In her role, Emily acts as a liaison between the Jr. Board and the organization's operating board, helping to shape future leaders while actively contributing to the growth of youth-focused programs. The company itself is a regular donor and event sponsor, supporting the Clubs' mission at both personal and organizational levels.

The Boys & Girls Clubs of Northwest San Diego County provide safe, supportive environments where young people can thrive through academic enrichment, leadership development, and healthy lifestyle programs. Serving thousands of kids and teens each year, the Clubs are a cornerstone of community engagement and long-term impact across the region.

For Emily Souliotes, this work is deeply personal. Raised in Encinitas, she attended the Solana

Beach branch of the Club in junior high, where she formed friendships and found a sense of belonging that shaped her values. Now, as both a business leader and community advocate, she's dedicated to giving back to the same organization that helped guide her.

"It's rare in life to have a full-circle moment, but this is one of them," said Radford co-owner Emily Souliotes. "The Boys & Girls Club was part of my own story growing up, and now I get to help write that story for other kids. Whether it's fundraising or rallying local businesses to get involved, I see it as a privilege to support the kind of environment that once supported me."
