

Industry Veteran Glenn Butler Named CTO of GlobalConnect®

GlobalConnect welcomes convenience services and software industry veteran Glenn Butler as the company's new Chief Technology Officer.

GREENSBORO, NC, UNITED STATES, July 22, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

GlobalConnect is pleased to officially welcome Glenn Butler as the company's new Chief Technology Officer. A veteran of the convenience services and software industries, Glenn brings a proven history of success in developing scalable, data-driven solutions that fuel long-term growth.

Over the past several years, Glenn worked closely with GlobalConnect in a fractional CTO role, helping launch transformative platforms including LYNK® cashless payment devices and ConnectHQ®, the industry's most advanced— and market-first— enterprise software platform. Now, as a full-time team member, Glenn is set to further expand the company's technological innovation.

Glenn Butler | Chief Technical Officer, GlobalConnect

"Glenn's full-time leadership marks an important milestone in our mission to deliver future-ready solutions for independent operators, our partners, and the industry" said Jeff Whitacre, CEO of GlobalConnect. "His strategic vision and product leadership will be instrumental as we enter our next phase of innovation."

Butler is widely regarded for his entrepreneurial spirit—having co-founded Streamware

Corporation—and for his leadership at legacy industry players like Cantaloupe Systems and Crane Merchandising Systems. He also holds multiple patents in the field of automated retail technology.

As CTO, Glenn will be responsible for overseeing software services and leading the development of future-forward technologies designed to empower independent convenience services operators and to catapult the industry to the forefront of technology.
