CA, UNITED STATES, August 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Wade Litigation, a California-based law firm focusing on civil litigation, has published an updated overview of its core practice areas at www.wadelitigation.com. The firm handles a wide range of disputes, including business conflicts, family law matters, probate litigation, and appeals.

Founder & Attorneys - Wade Litigation

The website serves as an informational resource for individuals and organizations seeking details about the firm's approach, legal team, and recent case outcomes.

The firm's primary areas of practice include:

Business Litigation – Handling matters such as breach of contract, business torts, and partnership disputes.

Family Law – Addressing custody, support, divorce, and post-judgment modifications.

Probate and Trust Litigation – Representing parties in disputes involving wills, trusts, and fiduciary duties.

Appellate Litigation – Providing representation in civil appeals in California's appellate courts.

"Our focus remains on representing clients involved in litigation across multiple legal areas," said Amiel Wade, founder of Wade Litigation. "The website offers a clear overview of the firm's services and the types of matters we routinely handle."

In addition to outlining practice areas, WadeLitigation.com includes attorney biographies, recent press releases, and links to published content and case summaries. The site is intended to provide transparency about the firm's structure and areas of legal activity.
