I'm honored to join Naples Soccer Academy and contribute to an organization deeply committed to the growth, safety, and success of youth female athletes”

Christos Viores

Christos brings over two decades of executive-level management experience to NSA. He currently serves as the Co-Managing Partner and Chief Operating Officer of Ligris & Associates, where he has been a senior management team member since 2010. In his role, he collaborates with leadership to design and execute the firm's strategic growth and development plans. He oversees administration, operations, technology, human resources, and practice management, while also managing financial, administrative, and regulatory compliance protocols. Under Christos' leadership, Ligris & Associates, P.C. has grown into one of the largest transactional real estate law firms and title agency operations in New England.

“Christos' proven leadership and operational expertise are exactly what NSA needs as we expand our programs and reach,” said Jason Gruner, Executive Director of Naples Soccer Academy. “I have known Christos for nearly 25 years, and I can say with certainty that his integrity, strategic vision, and commitment to excellence are unmatched. His professional accomplishments and dedication to community impact align perfectly with our mission.”
