Navarro, known for her lightning-fast combinations and fearless ring presence, returns to the ring as part of The Butterfly Brawl at the world-famous Santa Monica Pier on Saturday, August 16, 2025.

The fiery Navarro hits the ring with a 5-0 record (3 KOs) against Montana Weems. Navarro is trained by her father, former pro boxer Ignacio "Nacho" Navarro, and sponsored by StorageBlue Sports. Founded by E! Entertainment Television founder Alan Mruvka, StorageBlue Sports provides financial support, training resources, and mentorship to young athletes across various sports disciplines.

“Chantel is an exceptional athlete and we're proud to sponsor her,” said Mruvka. “Having her be part of a high-profile event like the Butterfly Brawl is another step forward in her career. The sky's the limit for what she will achieve, and she is both a true champion and an inspiration.”

The Butterfly Brawl, a high-profile celebration of life and purpose, is presented by Fightbook in association with Bash Boxing. This unique charity event will donate 100% of net proceeds to the American Cancer Society and the Santa Monica Police Activities League. This year's headline musical performer is Mix Master Mike of the legendary Beastie Boys, delivering an unforgettable DJ set under the oceanfront sunset.

Tickets are available now at www.fightbook.com.
