

2020 Companies Named to Forbes List of America's Best Employers for Women 2025

2020 Companies named to Forbes' 2025 Best Employers for Women list, recognizing leadership and equity in the workplace.

SOUTHLAKE, TX, UNITED STATES, August 19, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- 2020 Companies has been named one of America's Best Employers for Women 2025 by Forbes, ranking #444 out of 700 top organizations nationwide. This prestigious recognition, developed in partnership with market research firm Statista, honors companies that are leading the way in supporting, empowering, and advancing women in the workplace.

We didn't set out to win awards; we set out to do right by our people.”

*Christopher B. Munday,
Chairman and CEO*

The ranking is based on a rigorous analysis of data collected over the past three years from more than 140,000 women working for companies and institutions in the U.S. with at least 1,000 employees. Only responses from women were considered.

The study evaluated organizations using three key criteria:

1. Personal evaluations (Direct): Recommendations from current employees
2. Public evaluations (Indirect): Recommendations from previous employers
3. Leadership Diversity Index: The percentage of women among top executives and board directors

Christopher B. Munday, Chairman and CEO, stated, “We didn't set out to win awards; we set out to do right by our people. This recognition from Forbes is meaningful because it reflects the trust and voices of the women who make our company better every day. It's built on a foundation of listening, learning, and putting people first.”

2020 Companies remain focused on developing strong leadership, widening our recruitment efforts, and maintaining fair workplace policies for all employees.

2020 Companies is proud to be part of a select group of companies recognized for advancing equity in the workplace.
