Canada to India Flights

There are a number of events and celebrations packing the second half of the year, and international travel between Canada and India experiences a sharp spike in demand. However, proactive planning and updated announcements provide real-time assistance in securing the lowest fares during the 2025 festive rush.

US Visa Holders Can fly from Canada to India via US

Flying from Canada to India via the US for USA visa holders is another option to save more on flights. As the trend of US to India flights is the lowest in years, it enables customers to enjoy more savings with short trips to the USA and from there to India.

Trend of Early Bookings for Maximum Savings

The combination of competitive deals, flexible travel options, and early booking made things possible and locked in savings. The secure booking window, which is at least 2-3 months long, is almost running out, so flyers who are in the mood to enjoy festivals with family and friends must take advantage of it.

Some highlights include:

- > Early Bird Discounts: Secure your fares before prices rise due to high demand.
- > Round-Trip Offers: Save more when booking both outbound and return tickets.
- > Flexible Routes: Connecting flights via Europe or the Middle East often cost less than direct routes.
- > Regional Access: Competitive fares to hubs beyond Delhi and Mumbai, such as Ahmedabad, Hyderabad, Bengaluru, and Amritsar.

During the festival window, from September to December, flyers can witness the highest surge. However, the 2025 deals are available, but last-minute booking planners often fail to secure them.
