My Cemetery Friends: A Garden of Encounters at Mount Saint Mary in Queens, New York

My Cemetery Friends is not just about loss—it is about discovery. Through quiet walks among gravestones, Tomeo finds stories, encounters, and reflections that speak to the universal human experience. As readers join him on these strolls through a cemetery transformed into a “living museum,” they meet characters past and present, known and unnamed, who collectively honor the sacredness of memory and the surprising beauty of everyday connection.

Celebrated by both the Pacific Book Review and US Review of Books, the work has been praised for its emotional depth, vivid imagery, and the comforting, thought-provoking way it brings life and death into harmonious conversation. Tomeo’s writing is both meditative and celebratory, drawing readers into a deeper appreciation of heritage, history, and hope.

Tomeo, a widely published poet and international speaker, continues to impact audiences with his signature blend of reflection, compassion, and literary insight.

My Cemetery Friends is available now on Amazon and other leading digital bookstores. Readers attending the Manila International Book Fair 2025 will have the opportunity to explore this remarkable work as part of the event's literary showcase.
