Orthopedics proudly announces the addition of Dr. Ferdinand Iannaccone, D.O., a board-certified pain management physician, to their team of multidisciplinary specialists. Dr. Iannaccone brings extensive expertise in interventional pain management, anesthesiology, and patient-centered care to the practice.

Dr. Ferdinand Iannaccone, DO | Pain Management Specialist at Alliance Orthopedics

Born and raised in New Jersey, Dr. Iannaccone is a proud graduate of Seton Hall University and earned his medical degree from the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey – School of Osteopathic Medicine (now Rowan University School of Osteopathic Medicine). He went on to complete his internship at St. Barnabas Medical Center in Livingston, his anesthesiology residency at Rutgers New Jersey Medical School, where he was named Chief Resident, and a prestigious fellowship in pain management at the Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai, St. Luke's–Roosevelt Hospital in New York City.

We're proud to welcome Dr. Ferdinand Iannaccone, marking a pivotal step in our commitment to exceptional care. His expertise and compassion elevate our team and drive our mission of Better Everyday.”

Dr. John Cho, M.D., Medical Director at Alliance Orthopedics

Throughout his career, Dr. Iannaccone has been at the forefront of clinical research and education. He has authored numerous publications, including lead studies on genicular nerve ablation for chronic knee pain, spinal cord and peripheral nerve stimulation, and strategies for patient education in anesthesia and pain care. He has also lectured widely at medical symposiums and hospitals across the region, sharing insights on multimodal pain control, neuromodulation, and interventional pain therapies.

At Alliance Orthopedics, Dr. Iannaccone specializes in minimally invasive techniques, including selective nerve blocks, radiofrequency ablation, spinal cord and peripheral nerve stimulation, and venous ablation. His integrative approach emphasizes combining interventional procedures with physical therapy and chiropractic care, offering patients a comprehensive pathway to recovery, long-term function, and improved quality of life.

Fluent in Italian and proficient in Spanish, Dr. Iannaccone is passionate about patient education and communication, ensuring his patients feel empowered and informed about their care. He is an active member of leading medical societies, including the American Society of Anesthesiologists, the American Society of Interventional Pain Physicians, and the New Jersey Society of Interventional Pain Physicians, where he previously served as Treasurer.

“Welcoming Dr. Ferdinand Iannaccone to Alliance Orthopedics marks a pivotal moment in our commitment to delivering exceptional patient care. His clinical expertise, compassionate approach, and dedication to innovation align perfectly with our mission to get patients Better Everyday. Dr. Iannaccone brings not only clinical excellence but also a collaborative spirit that will elevate our entire team. We’re proud to have him join us as we continue transforming the healthcare experience for patients.” — Dr. John Cho, M.D., Medical Director at Alliance Orthopedics

When not caring for patients, Dr. Iannaccone enjoys traveling and engaging with the rich cultural communities of New Jersey, where he continues to live and serve.
