

Triple the Talent: The Moipei Sisters Take Manhattan From the Hamptons

From Nairobi to New York — An Unforgettable Evening of Song

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, August 28, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Identical triplets Mary, Maggy, and Marta Moipei are set to light up the Hamptons with a performance that bridges continents and genres. Born and raised in Nairobi, Kenya, the sisters have become international sensations for their dazzling harmonies, unique arrangements, and ability to weave together musical traditions from around the world.

Their New York program promises an eclectic and exhilarating mix: classics from the American Songbook, the golden age of Broadway, and a stylish swing through Duke Ellington and Benny Goodman. Audiences will also be treated to flashes of pop, soul-stirring gospel, and the deep-rooted beauty of a traditional Swahili folk song—bringing the sisters' story full circle back to Africa.

With voices that blend as only siblings can, the Moipei Sisters offer more than just music—they create an experience that's joyful, soulful, and unforgettable. Whether you come for the Broadway standards, the jazz, or the African heritage, this performance is guaranteed to put a smile on your face and leave you standing on your feet.

Ticket Prices:

VIP Café front row reserve seating (with drink ticket) - $100.00, General admission (in advance) - $60.00, General admission (at the door) - $65.00.
