

24/7 Always On: Geothermal & Critical Minerals Session to Spotlight Resilience at Houston Energy & Climate Week 2025

Houston Energy & Climate Week (HECW), will feature "24/7 Energy Abundance with Geothermal & Critical Minerals" September 17, at POST Houston (401 Franklin St.).

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, September 4, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A highlight of Houston Energy & Climate Week (HECW), running from September 14 to 19, 2025, will be the full-day program "24/7 Energy Abundance with Geothermal & Critical Minerals" on Wednesday, September 17, at POST Houston (401 Franklin St.).

This is the Power of "&" in action. Together, #geothermal and #lithium represent Houston's unstoppable leadership in climate resilience."

Brandy Obvintseva

This session will explore how geothermal power and critical minerals work together to deliver reliable, sustainable, always-on energy solutions at the heart of the global energy transition.

Featured Speakers include:

Dr. Sharita Humphrey, CEO, Eco Power Source USA
Peter Duncan, CEO, MicroSeismic
Gonzalo Macchiavello, COO, GT Titan
Lev Ring, Sage GeoSystems
Nasikul Islam, Exceed Geo Energy
Reza Fard, Vallourec
Representatives from Equinor, TerraVolta, and Altillion

This event is sponsored by Geothermal Rising, Microseismic, Gallant and The Post Houston. It is produced and curated by Elizabeth Cambre of Vallorec.

"This is the Power of "&" in action," said Brandy Obvintseva, Communications Director of Geothermal Rising and Principal of Gallant. "Geothermal provides 24/7 clean baseload energy, heating and cooling; and rare minerals fuel the batteries and mobility solutions of tomorrow."

Together, they represent Houston's unstoppable leadership in climate resilience."

Registration is complimentary
