Grand Reveal 2025 Brings a Packed House to the Writers Guild Theater as Echos TV Unveils Next Generation Platform Features

BEVERLY HILLS, CA, UNITED STATES, September 28, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- The Writers Guild Theater was filled to capacity for the highly anticipated Grand Reveal 2025, where Echos TV, powered by Mindatorium, unveiled major advancements to its inspirational, motivational, and transformational entertainment streaming platform.

The evening's announcements included the launch of a completely revamped 24/7 online broadcast, now available free to audiences worldwide, and the introduction of a comprehensive marketing, landing page, and funnel system designed to dramatically expand the subscriber base.

Echos TV also highlighted key strategic alliances and partnerships, featuring 11 influential partners who participated in the event. These included Rehan Jalali, renowned fitness coach to the entertainment industry; Chike Nwoffiah, founder of the Silicon Valley African Film Festival; Jennifer Murphy of GoGirl Worldwide; Ksana Golod, veteran film distribution expert with plans to secure a presence at AFM and Sundance Film Festivals; Moe Rock, CEO of The Los Angeles Tribune; and Kim Wang, producer of the Miss Chinese Pageant, now officially announced to stream exclusively on the Echos TV platform.

The company also revealed its comprehensive rebranding initiative, including rebranded Echos TV apps across iOS, Android, Apple TV, Roku, and Fire TV, signaling a major push toward expanding its global footprint and reach.

This milestone evening marked Echos TV's second major event at the iconic Writers Guild

Theater in Beverly Hills, California, cementing its position as a leader in the conscious entertainment revolution.
