

MPLT Healthcare CEO Liz Hale Named SIA's Global Power 150 Women in Staffing for Third Consecutive Year

MPLT Healthcare is proud to announce that Liz Hale has been recognized for the 3rd consecutive year on SIA's Global Power 150 Women in Staffing list.

BOCA RATON, FL, UNITED STATES, October 22, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MPLT Healthcare is proud to announce that its CEO, Liz Hale, has been recognized for the third consecutive year on Staffing Industry Analysts' Global Power 150 Women in Staffing list. The honor celebrates the most influential women in the staffing and recruitment sector who are shaping the industry through leadership, innovation, and strategic impact.

Liz Hale

SIA compiles the Global Power 150 Women in Staffing list annually to spotlight women whose contributions drive the sector forward. The 150 honorees lead large organizations, influence industry trends, and mentor future leaders. It encompasses executives, founders, and senior leaders from agencies, staffing firms, and workforce solution providers across the globe.

Being named to the list three years in a row underscores Liz Hale's consistent impact and enduring leadership in the staffing world. Under her guidance, MPLT has grown through the enhancement of talent acquisition strategies and increased operational efficiency while maintaining a high-performance culture that empowers teams to deliver results.

"We commend Liz for this well-deserved recognition, which reflects her vision and leadership in driving positive change across the healthcare staffing landscape," said Jay Mays, Chairman of the MPLT Board of Directors. "It is a tremendous honor for her to once again be named among the remarkable women shaping our industry; a testament to her commitment to challenging limits, leading with integrity, and shaping the future of staffing solutions."
