

Minja Yan Invites Community to Explore and Support Local Businesses at Free Chinatown Scavenger Hunt on December 13

Clark County Commission Candidate Minja Yan Announces Chinatown Las Vegas Scavenger Hunt on December 13 to highlight local businesses and community

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES,
November 21, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Clark County Commission District F candidate Minja Yan is inviting residents from across the valley to join her for an exciting and interactive Chinatown Las Vegas Scavenger Hunt on Saturday, December 13, from 1:30 PM to 4:00 PM.

This family-friendly event will guide participants through some of Chinatown's most beloved small businesses, cultural landmarks, and hidden gems. Attendees will complete creative missions, visit local shops and restaurants, and engage with neighbors while exploring one of Southern Nevada's most vibrant districts.

Yan—widely recognized for her community advocacy, leadership in Chinatown, and hands-on approach to public service—says the event reflects her campaign's values of connection, accessibility, and community-driven solutions.

"Chinatown is one of the most vibrant and important cultural districts in Southern Nevada," Yan
